

18th Edition - Requirements for Electrical Installations - City & Guilds

Those who are wanting to work in, or currently working in environments requiring 18th Edition qualifications will need to complete the City & Guilds 2382 assessment referencing BS7671. This qualification is primarily aimed at practising electricians with relevant experience and other allied professionals e.g. surveyors, consultants and other trades needing to update and enhance their understanding of IET Wiring Regulations. Key topics: · Scope, objective and fundamental principles of BS7671 - Who the Regulations are for and what they are meant to do · Definitions - explanation of the terminology used in the Regulations · Assessment of general characteristics - Surveying the site and equipment to be installed · Protection for safety · Selection and erection of equipment · Inspection and testing · Special installations or locations · Past exam revision · Assessment - City & Guilds 2382 The primary publication required on the day of the course is the IEE Wiring Regulations: Requirements for Electrical Installations BS7671:2018 [Blue Book]

Instructions

Those who are wanting to work in, or currently working in environments requiring 18th Edition qualifications will need to complete the City & Guilds 2382 assessment referencing BS7671. This qualification is primarily aimed at practising electricians with relevant experience and other allied professionals e.g. surveyors, consultants and other trades needing to update and enhance their understanding of IET Wiring Regulations. Age Restriction Those over the age of 16 years can undertake this course. Please note: The primary publication required on the day of the course is the IEE Wiring Regulations: Requirements for Electrical Installations BS7671:2018 [Blue Book]. You can bring your own or this can be purchased from HSS Training before or on the day of the course. The cost is £85

Address

Intertrain (UK) Ltd
Balby Court Business Campus
Balby Carr Bank
Doncaster
South Yorkshire
DN4 8DE

Contact

Tel: 01302 815 530
Email: sales@intertrain.biz